Berlin, May 22, N. S.

LAST Sunday at Noon the King of Pruſſia dined again with King Staniſlaus at the French Miniſter's. In the Evening there was Court at Montbijou, where King Staniſlaus was entertained at Supper by the Queen of Pruſſia, and the next Morning he ſet out on his Journey to France. No Honours were paid that Prince on his Arrival, but on his Departure he was ſaluted by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon on the Ramparts. Colonel Truchſes accompanies him, on the Part of his Pruſſian Majeſty, to Guelder; to which Place that Prince is to be defrayed at the King of Pruſſia's Expence, and Count Truchſes has received 3000 Dollars for that Purpoſe. His Pruſſian Majeſty made King Staniſlaus a Preſent of a fine Coach and eight Pruſſian Horſes: The Coach is valued at 2000 Dollars, and the Horſes at as much. His Pruſſian Majeſty is now taken up in reviewing his Regiments ſingly, and theſe Reviews will laſt till the latter End of next Week; after which he deſigns to go to Magdebourg to examine the State and Condition of that Fortreſs, and to paſs in Review the Regiments quartered there and in that Neighbourhood. This Court has received from Vienna the agreeable News, that the Emperour, at his Pruſſian Majeſty's Inſtances, had revoked the Orders lately publiſhed againſt Pruſſian Recruiters, ſo far as related to the King of Pruſſia's own Regiment of tall Grenadiers.

Hague, June 4, N. S. The States have reſolved to acknowledge King Auguſtus of Poland, by anſwering his Letter of Notification to them of his Eſtabliſhment on that Throne; they have alſo reſolved to ſend an Anſwer to a Letter from King Staniſlaus, ſignifying his Acquieſcence in that Eſtabliſhment. The Opinions of the Provinces touching the Reduction of the Forces of this State being return'd, it was propoſed Yeſterday, in the Aſſembly of the States General, to make the Reform of the Troops commence on the 8th of July; but upon ſome Objection of the Province of Friſeland, the Concluſion of this Matter is referred to Monday next. King Staniſlaus came to Weſel the 29th paſt, and the next Day proceeded to Guelder on his Way to Paris.

Whitehall, May 24.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order a Bill to be prepared for his Royal Signature, to paſs the Great Seal, containing his Congé d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of His Cathedral Church of St. Aſaph, empowering them to chuſe a Biſhop of that See, the ſame being void by the Death of Dr. Thomas Tanner late Biſhop thereof. As likewiſe a Letter to be prepared for His Royal Signature, recommending unto the ſaid Dean and Chapter Iſaac Maddox, Doctor in Divinity, to be by them elected Biſhop of that See.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant unto David Gregory, Doctor in Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Canon of his Cathedral Church of Chriſt in his Univerſity of Oxford, in the Room of Dr. Thomas Tanner, deceaſed.

Whitehall, May 21, 1736.

Whereas the Lodgings of Nicholas Bayly, Eſq; were burglariouſly broke open on Monday the Tenth Day of this Inſtant May, in the Houſe of Mr. Robert Cotes, Apothecary in Bond-ſtreet, in the County of Middleſex, and a great Quantity of rich wearing Apparel, with a Gold repeating Watch and other Things of Value, the Property of the ſaid Nicholas Bayly, were feloniouſly taken out of them: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the ſaid Burglary and Felony, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Perſons concerned therein, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement for diſcovering the ſame, the ſaid Nicholas Bayly doth hereby promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds to be paid by him upon Conviction of any of the Offenders; and the ſaid Mr. Robert Cotes, who, upon the ſame Occaſion, had ſome Silver Spoons feloniouſly taken out of his Kitchen, doth likewiſe promiſe a farther Reward of Twenty Pounds upon Conviction of any of the Offenders.

Nicholas Bayly.
